Dear Current or Prospective Member Organization/Individual,

Greetings from White Ribbon Alliance for Safe Motherhood (WRASM). WRASM is a national civil society umbrella organization working to reduce maternal and newborn mortality and unpreventable deaths through advocacy by leveraging social accountability approaches. After an exciting work with our members in 2021 where we collaborated in various activities, including the What Midwives Want (WMW) campaign, development of family planning dashboard on DHIS2 and holding an SRHR Consensus Building and Networking Workshop, WRASM looks forward to continued coordination and collaboration in advocacy platforms at national, district and community levels. WRASM will keep on spearheading interface meetings between the duty bearers in reproductive and maternal health, and the rights holders, especially women and girls. We want to continue with our collaborations and leading in amplifying voices of vulnerable women and girls, and at the same time engaging health workers especially nurses and midwives to understand their challenges and engaging Government to address the gaps, a practice WRASM has maintained since its inception in 2002.
